2nd Day Walking City Tour Information

28 March 2026

Join a born-and-bred Singaporean on a walk through time. This journey spans 700 years, from Temasek to the present day, beginning at the Singapore River, ascending Fort Canning, and exploring the Civic District.

This is more than just history—it is a personal story. Having witnessed Singapore’s remarkable 50-year transformation firsthand, from “third world” to “first,” the guide shares stories both heard and experienced, bringing the past to life.

By the Singapore River, visitors can imagine the early traders of Temasek. At Fort Canning, they will hear tales of ancient royalty and World War II history. In the Civic District, they will see colonial grandeur meet modern ambition. Along the way, the guide shares personal memories of a changing Singapore amidst these iconic landmarks.

This is Singapore’s story—from humble beginnings to a global powerhouse. It is a story of resilience, transformation, and the spirit of the island. Visitors are invited to walk alongside the guide, listen to the echoes of time, and discover Singapore’s incredible journey through local eyes.
